Here are a few on-site tips to make your visit easy and enjoyable.

TICKETING

Your Eventbrite ticket was emailed to you at the time of purchase. We recommend adding it to your Apple Wallet or Google Pay in advance so you have easy access at the gate. Check-in will be contactless—just have your QR code ready when you arrive.

This event is almost sold out. Any remaining tickets are available through the Surf website, there will not be a box office on site.

PLAN YOUR VISIT

VIP ticket holders will enter on Wynkoop Street near Call Me Pearl. First Taste and General Admission guests must enter through the main entrance of the festival located in the center of Wynkoop Street between 19th and 20th. There are no event entrances open from inside the food hall or Rally Hotel.

This 21+ ONLY event is rain or shine and there is no re-entry. Cocktail attire is requested. Please make sure to bring your government issued ID as it is required for entrance. Colorado Digital IDs will be accepted.

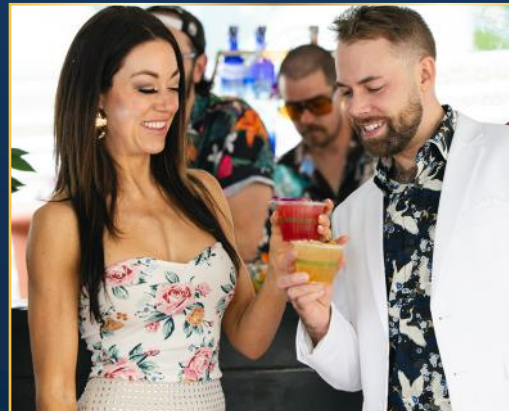

No outside food or drink is permitted. Once you enter the event, all food and beverages are included in your ticket. Water and non-alcoholic beverages will be provided.

Visit our FAQ page for details on parking and alternative transportation. There are multiple parking garage options available near McGregor; however we highly recommend utilizing rideshare for convenient access. Hosted parking will not be provided by the event.

WHAT TO WEAR

Surf is a great chance to get dressed up and enjoy an evening out! Please dress in cocktail attire. Think of it as dressed-up, but not over-the-top. A breezy sundress, romper, or cute matching set works great for women. For men, a button-down or polo with slacks or nice jeans is perfect—no tie required. Basically: look sharp, feel comfortable, and leave the sneakers, flip-flops, and athletic wear at home.

YOUR SAFETY

To ensure the safety of our guests, DiningOut Events provides enhanced security for all events. Visit our FAQ page to find out what you can and cannot bring to Surf Seafood Championship.

THANK YOU AND ENJOY THE EVENT!
